

I am disturbed that there is a trend toward greater concentration of powers and ownership in many aspects of American business and life. I am especially upset over the concentration of media control. This clearly threatens the independent voices of the press and broadcast industry. I strongly urge you to reverse this trend, and thus protect the quality of broadcast content and news reporting.

thank you